Cloakroom ribbons will be placed on individual race numbers. Participants should detach this ribbon from the race number in advance and secure it to the bag using the safety pin provided in the race kit to ensure it doesn't fall off.

The bag only needs to be dropped off at the race center, but participants don't have to wait for the organizer working there to accept it. They can independently place it in the designated area within the tent boundaries.

After reaching the finish line, our staff will distribute the bags, corresponding to the race number.

The results are continuously updated on the website following the finish of the race.

14th Balaton Supermarathon - Race Execution:

The route is marked along the Balaton cycling path and the low-traffic (typically bike-friendly) roads of the settlements, mainly on the southern shore. Where the route justifies it (at railway crossings or when crossing Route 71), there will be special organizer/police security. In areas where special personnel security is not warranted, participants must prioritize safe progress and adhere to traffic rules, being considerate of other road users.

Participating teams can distribute the relay stages as they wish but can only switch at designated relay points.

At the relay points, dressing facilities and refreshments will be provided for team members.

On the sections between relay points, route refreshment stations will be set up, usually two stations, and one on shorter relay stages. However, at the designated refreshment points, teams can also provide individual refreshments to the member currently completing the stage.

For relay and pair races, only those teams that arrange transportation for team members themselves will be accepted.

We recommend that participants carry their mobile phones on the route.

Other Information about the 14th Balaton Supermarathon:

In the competition, any prepared runner can participate who accepts the conditions outlined in the competition announcement and adheres to the race regulations.

Due to the specific characteristics of the course and increased risk of accidents, wheelchair and handbike racers are not allowed to participate in the race.

A 10-minute time penalty may be imposed on a participant who folds, covers, or does not wear their race number visibly during the race.

A participant may be disqualified if, despite multiple warnings, they violate the rules regarding the wearing of the race number, fail to complete the race's designated full distance as determined by the race organizers, inaccurately or incompletely fill out the registration form, or misuse the chip.

Skating on rollerblades, running without a race number, and running with a dog are prohibited in the race.

As the race takes place on a road open to regular traffic and not completely closed off, it is not recommended for participants to wear headphones that significantly muffle external noises from both ears for safety reasons.

Within the race, cyclists and motorbike organizers, as well as ambulance vehicles, work in the field as needed.

Wearing headphones suppresses external noises, which can hinder fellow runners and the work of the organizing team, as well as the medical crew.

Support from cyclists or rollerbladers is only allowed from the first daily refreshment station. Deviating from this may result in a 10-minute time penalty.

We do not provide a safekeeping service at the event.

Any commercial and advertising activities at the event location can only be carried out with the prior permission and in a coordinated manner approved by BSI.

BSI reserves the right, for organizational reasons, to limit the number of participants and close registration at any time.

BSI reserves the right to make changes to the route and schedule.
